TOPIC / CATEGORY | KEY POINTS / NEXT STEPS (Action)
---|---
President’s Report | • OCCA Convention – Lussier attended workshops on boardsmanship and accountability – Sen. Kurt Schrader and Rep Larry Galizio were in attendance at the accountability workshop and participated in the discussion – it seems that all colleges are not yet on the same page in terms of key performance measures and accountability
• World Café Seminar – Truesdell explained the discussion process in which participants sat at hosted tables for a predefined amount of time to discuss such topics as: What is success? How do we measure? How do we tell our story? – tables were equipped with paper table cloths and crayons for ongoing notes and observations by various participants - Truesdell volunteered a CCC individual (not yet identified) to be a part of a statewide process regarding the World Café process
• Truesdell - BOE members in attendance at the convention attended every single session and workshop available to them – they are taking their jobs very seriously
• The Shared Responsibility Model was also discussed as was running successful bond campaigns, sustainability, student retention, diversity of the campus climate and how best to work with legislators

Faculty Forum | • van der Bijl - Faculty Forum is held to allow an opportunity for departments to come forward and request additional faculty positions – there is always discussion about not filling open positions as well
• How early should possible positions be brought to this Forum – probably not yet appropriate for positions in new Harmony buildings
• Leach asked about ratios and rationale for filling faculty positions in a time of decreasing FTE – van der Bijl noted that while some areas are decreasing, others continue to grow and still need more instructors
• Discussion regarding development of a Classified Forum – consensus was that this was a good idea
• All agreed that it’s good for everyone to hear of needs in other areas
• van der Bijl will develop a preliminary plan for the Classified Forum noting that the timeline will not necessarily echo that of the Faculty Forum
• Faculty decisions are typically made no later than mid December if possible so as to meet publication deadlines

Enrollment Discussion | • Drebin, Briare and Parini are currently researching consultants for assistance in the development of a strategic enrollment strategy plan – they also will be participating in strategic enrollment web-in-ars put on by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers.(AACRAO)
• More discussion regarding seamless and rapid turnaround for students’ paperwork – are our processes working well? Are they making sense? Do we need to look at changing them?
• Parini – fundraising for scholarships is no longer the hard part – it’s marketing appropriately to today’s students

Position Openings: Allied Health Secretary Exec Assistant Pres/BOE | • Allied Health Secretary Kelly White has moved to the Art Department – Approval and discussion about the possibility of making this a 12-month rather than 9-month position in the future - Approval
• Executive Assistant to the President/Board of Education – Kathleen Smith has taken a position with Clackamas County - the resulting vacant exempt position will open internally/externally - goal is hire in four weeks – Approval

All | • Teetor – Sen. Kurt Schrader visited her GED classroom recently – class had developed questions (both professional and personal) to ask of Sen. Schrader – important for Sen. Schrader to see that our mission is ABE/GED classes as well as AAOTS, etc.
• Parini – attended Portland Metro Veterans Summit – discussions on how agencies and organizations can share best practices to support veterans and their families – information and continuing dialog on how we must address and nurture returning veterans, particularly those with injuries and/or special needs.
• Parini – November 3 - reminder of Veterans event on campus at which 1000 people are expected
• Parini – November 7 – CCC staff will be participating in the Clackamas County Economic Development Summit
• Parini – November 13 – second Harmony Unified Vision Community Meeting at OIT – Parini will meet with CCC participants and volunteers prior to the meeting – she would like to have a few more students involved
• Arter – Greetings from Kate Gray in England – Outcomes Task Force is on track
• Smith – Holiday All-Staff Luncheon/Recognition event is on track – planning committee is in place and has met – shared mock up of Years of Service Recognition pins designed for Part Time CCC employees – Given Smith’s impending departure, suggestion that Stubblefield be the contact for the planning at this point in time
• Leach – Sustainability Committee is up and running – excellent response and attendance at first meeting - dynamic dialogue – good start!
• Leach – met with Deans whose programs will be most impacted by the planned power outage over December 14 16 – Drebin thanked Leach for including her area in the planning process for the outage given the importance of the timing for students
• Leach – met recently with ASG students – impressed with their dynamic discussion – students talked about sustainability, guns and smoking on campus and a number of other equally timely topics
• Donelson – thanked Smith for her years of service and wished her luck in her new position 😊
• Teetor – has a large number of professional development applications – more than usual as the result of successful email group provided by IT
• Mackey – met with the Extended Learning Division to discuss and analyze the Presidents Council purpose statement – concerns:
  - Either all deans or no deans should be required to attend – likely all…
  - No solid process for communication of what happens at PC to the rest of the campus
  - In list of major college events, Accreditation seems more important than Inservice or Staff Recognition – can these be listed differently?
  - Open position approval is not listed specifically in the statement
• Consensus regarding PC Purpose Statement – all divisions should discuss the statement further (i.e. what are important college events/efforts, membership. Communication, etc.)
• Donelson – there are currently three ways staff can access the information regarding PC meetings:
  - Participants take info back to their areas and disseminate
  - Highlights are noted on FYI Today
  - Minutes are linked to FYI Today – a click is required to access them
